

Do not think that love, in order to be genuine,
has to be extraordinary.

What we need is to love without getting tired.
Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies.

Mother Teresa

This reflection is courtesy of Parkdale United Church, Calgary, AB.
www.parkdaleunitedcalgary.net